

Magnetic Protective Cover

The magnetic protective cover is designed with clasps along the edges to ensure that the iPad is securely held in place.

When removing the iPad, please first pay attention to the position of the clasps.

Then, gently release the clasps at the corners before taking out the iPad.

Do not forcefully pull it out, as this may cause the case to crack.